

WKGS VALUES – BEHAVIOUR FOR LEARNING

School Values and HPL	Student Behaviour	What we are looking to celebrate (examples)
 COMMUNITY  	You contribute to our community within the classroom by collaborating effectively with others, being empathetic and concerned for those around you whilst also having confidence in what you believe.	Working well in a group Listening to others Respecting the views of others Kindness Charitable act Presenting views and listening Care for school community Care for local environment/wider community Keeping Form Room tidy Taking a Form Assembly or other contribution
 HIGH EXPECTATIONS  	You demonstrate high expectations of yourself as a learner. You are developing your intellectual confidence, ability to plan your learning and self-regulation.	Trying their best in lessons Improvement in attendance Improvement in progress Being well organised, punctual and prepared Good piece of work Well presented - correct uniform/dress code Good independent work Good time management/use of study time Good purple pen reflections Good use of planner
 OPPORTUNITY  	You seek opportunities to extend your knowledge and dig deeper through your contribution to enrichment, extra-curricular clubs and learning outside of the classroom.	Extracurricular activity Regular attendance at clubs House events Academic trips and competitions Mentoring others Leading a club Wider reading Good use of the library
 INNOVATION   	You are an innovative and imaginative thinker. You see things from alternative perspectives and think about the 'big picture' to solve problems.	Great suggestion in class/homework or classwork Member of student council Creative Personal Development Project Creative problem solving – Design Approaching a problem in a different way Leading whole school change e.g. prefects Making a link between subjects Explaining how topics link together/presenting ideas Making links to the outside world £5 challenge
 CURIOSITY   	You have a love of learning, think flexibly, creatively and have an open mind. You ask great enquiring questions and take risks with learning new things.	Asks good (probing/insightful) questions Asking questions that go beyond the topic Project work that shows a love of learning Understands other perspectives in conversation or debate Develop Oracy/Confidence Completing extension tasks D of E Going beyond the curriculum/research/wider reading
 ENDEAVOUR   	You make things happen by working hard. You are determined, resilient, you persevere with your learning and you practise until you succeed.	Seeking support when required Persevering with an academic challenge Attending additional support sessions Persistence in the face of adversity – academic and pastoral Seeking additional material to practise in areas of weakness Showing progress towards target grades for some students Improving attendance or behaviour Correcting/Improving work Consistent effort in lessons Learning from mistakes